

OUR STORY

When my wife and I moved to the North Shore from Laguna Beach in 2011, we wished simply to return to our Midwestern roots and raise our children among their extended family.

We quickly noticed that finding farm-to-table, convenient family food wasn't as easy as in Laguna, most specifically in that of our local pizza place, a weekly staple for us.

The fire was lit and Bake425 was born.

One store became four seemingly overnight.

We went from "testing the water" to "this is our livelihood".

Today, we're proud to say that every ingredient we offer is free of antibiotics, nitrates, nitrites, GMO's, carcinogenic dough conditioners and is either locally sourced, organically grown or sustainably produced.

At Bake425, our family feels strongly that the fewer steps between the farm and your fork, the better, for your health, your taste buds and the environment.

Be well. EAT well.

In gratitude, The Borneman Family
